2:00 PM — Special Panel: Restoring California Indian Place Names

3:00 PM & 4:00 PM — Storytelling for all ages.

Interactive Traditional California Indian Games throughout the day

Our 2023 festival is curated once again by Northern Sierra Mewuk basketweaver Jennifer Bates and is a rare opportunity to meet and interact with highly-skilled California Indian Artisans from across the state. Our honored presenters will be demonstrating their traditional crafts including basketweaving, bead and jewelry making, boat building, clapper stick carving, cordage making, acorn cooking, storytelling, interactive field games and more.
