11 AM to 5 PM – Cultural Demonstrations, Artisan Vendors & Information Tables

1 PM – Special Book Event with Deborah Miranda, Author of Bad Indians

2 PM – Special Panel on the Successful Campaign to Save the West Berkeley Shellmound

3 and 4 PM – Storytelling for all ages

Interactive Traditional California Indian Games throughout the day.

All events are free and open to the public.

Our 2024 festival is curated once again by Northern Sierra Mewuk basketweaver Jennifer Bates and is a rare opportunity to meet and interact with highly-skilled California Indian Artisans from across the state. Our honored presenters will be demonstrating their traditional crafts including basketweaving, bead and jewelry making, boat building, clapperstick carving, cordage making, acorn cooking, storytelling, interactive field games and more.
